THOUGHTS FROM A MOTHER'S HEART
(excerpts from the tribute read at the funeral)

Patricia Rose, from the moment of your birth, you brought us joy....
You loved Jesus. You never wavered in your desire to serve and please God and do what was right....

You loved your family. Oh, the great times we shared together—your daddy and I and your three sisters....

You loved your friends...truly interested in what was going on in their lives....

You loved to read....you continued that tradition with Caroline and Anthony....

You loved music.....you blessed your church in singing with Brent and your children.

You loved your husband....Yours was a happy relationship, each treating the other with love and respect...

You loved being a homemaker...keeping your house neat and clean, cooking and baking....

Your loved your children...Very rarely did anyone see you apart from either one of them....

All you ever wanted to be when you grew up was a wife and mommy, and to make it to heaven at the end of your days.

Now you have met both goals....Patricia, Caroline and Anthony, we miss you; but we will see you again.
